

Position Opening: Registered Nurse or Licensed Practical Nurse

Department: Pediatrics/Family Medicine

Schedule: Fulltime (1.0 FTE) Monday – Friday

Wage DOE: RN ($30.80-$33.34) LPN ($22.68-$24.55)

Essential Duties and Responsibilities include the following. Other duties may be assigned.

- Ensure patient flow is optimal at all times. If wait times are apparent, communicate to patients, providers and co-workers.
- Obtaining and recording patient history in patient EHR.
- Obtaining vital signs and recording in patient EHR.
- Maintain medication and immunization records.
- Ensure that providers have all appropriate information (results) for patient appointments.
- Preparing patients for and assisting with, routine and specialty exams, procedures, treatments, and minor office procedures and ensure that adequate consent has been obtained.
- Telephone and in-person screening within scope of practice
- Perform wound dressing changes.
- Specimen collection.
- Diagnostic and POC testing (may include EKG and respiratory testing)
- Notify patients of test results as directed and requested by providers.
- Carry out providers' orders accurately and in a timely manner.
- Communicate regularly with referral coordinators to ensure accurate and timely referral process for consults, exams, diagnostics and procedures. Complete referrals on acute basis when needed.
- Perform daily room checks and stock exam rooms with all needed supplies
- Demonstrate good infection control.
- Administer vaccinations.
- Coordinate State Vaccine Program.
- Prior Authorizations.
- Triage.

Education and/or Experience

Active WA State RN or LPN License

Current BLS

Must pass pre-employment drug screen and WSP background check

Benefits include: Medical, Dental, Vision, Life Insurance, 403(b) retirement plan and PTO